

Board member Michael Judin Awarded the 2012 International Law Office Client Choice Award.

Established in 2005, the ILO Client Choice Awards recognize those firms and partners around the world that stand apart for “the excellent client care they provide and the quality of their service”.

The criteria for the awards focus on an ability to add real value to clients’ businesses over and beyond the other players in the market. Uniquely, law firms and partners can only be nominated for the awards by corporate counsel.

The winners were chosen from more than 2 000 individual assessments received worldwide.

The award acknowledges that Goldman Judin Inc, established in Johannesburg in 1936, and which covers several fields of local and international law, has long enjoyed a reputation as one of South Africa's premier boutique law firms.

The category in which Michael Judin won the ILO Client Choice Award was “General Corporate in South Africa” – an honour that coincided with his listing in the South African section of the International Who’s Who of Corporate Governance Lawyers 2012.

Judin said; “I must confess to being humbled, especially since the awards are regarded as the Oscars of the global legal profession. At the same time, I freely express my gratitude to the firm’s clients, without whom it would not have been possible to garner so impressive an accolade.”

ends