

TRANSNET

Art Entrepreneurs Exhibition (October 2008)

This exhibition was held at Carlton Centre to showcase the entrepreneurial results of creative endeavours.

The opening ceremony was held at Transnet's offices and hosted by them. Opened by Hugh Masekela and Soweto artist, Sipho Ndebele, the exhibition, held in the public atrium, generated substantial public interest and pride amongst creators of the work. Media interest was enormous.

These artworks were created by learners from rural areas in four provinces. The winning artist (from Hammerskraal) was awarded an opportunity to hold a solo exhibition at the Grahamstown Arts festival in 2009. This prize is fully funded by Transnet.
